

Diane L. Knipple, 41, Brick Township

February 5, 1998

Diane L. Knipple, 41, of Brick Township, died Tuesday at Brick Hospital. She was a driver for the Ocean County Transportation Department, Toms River, for 10 years. She was a member of St. Uriel's Episcopal Church, Sea Girt, a member of A Time for You in Wall Township, a cancer support group for patients who have children; and was a soccer coach for the Brick league. Born in Point Pleasant, she lived there, moving to Brick 17 years ago.

Surviving are her husband, William R.; two sons, William Jr. and Justin, both at home; her mother, Shirley Beddiges; a brother, Fred Beddiges, Brick; and four sisters, Linda Niestemski, Toms River, Karen Mummolo, Pennsylvania, Debbie Bethel, Jackson Township, and Cathy Chomen, Connecticut, and her grandmother, Ada Pearce, Point Pleasant.

Colonial Funeral Home, Brick, is in charge of arrangements.

.