

Laura Truncale Burns

5 Brandell Drive, Plattsbury, NY 12901, lburns@ccbr.us

Laura and Bob have two daughters, Julie 17 and Jenny 14. Laura has recently been named CEO of Clinton County Board of Realtors. She is still painting and selling water colors. They have two collies. She is a member of Champlain Valley Business and Professional Women's Association, and is also involved with Clinton County Council of Arts, and the North Country Girl Scout Council. Laura's favorite teacher in high school was Maria Sant, and remembers her coaching her on a dramatic reading of Robert Frost's Out Out. Her favorite music from the era, Bruce! Laura was awarded a civilian Navy Commendation medal for management analysis work accomplished during the Persian Gulf war at Military Sealift Command Atlantic Headquarters, but that may pale in comparison to her adding two great young women to the world, and graduating from Art School college and graduate studies, magna cum laude in 1997.

Karen Norton Grady

703 James Drive, Newport, NC 28570, knortgrady@yanco.com

Karen and Tom have been married since January of 1977, and have three grown children, Stephen who recently married a girl from Beachwood named Michele, Stacey Ann who is engaged to be married, and Brian. Brian recently accepted a position with the Myrtle Beach Fire Department as a professional firefighter. Karen is a nurse and gets great satisfaction from helping people live healthier lives. She loves spending time with her soul mate Tom, and their five dogs and five cats. Karen recently graduated Daisy, a black lab, from the Service Animals of America program. Karen is a member of SARA, and the friend to the Newport Animal Shelter. Her favorite teacher was Mr. Hulse for teaching her about caring for others, and health and first aid. Her family is her career highlight.

Michael Kavanaugh

603 Homestead Rd, Brielle, NJ 08730

Mike and Annette have three boys, ages 12, 10 and 7. They enjoy boating and the beach. They have a large and disobedient dog. Mike has enjoyed being a basketball referee. Mike remembers driver's education and metal shop with Mr. Sisia, Harry Ferguson's VW van, and Mr. Gilmore teaching 12th grade "health". He also remembers cords and Walabee's (a fashion staple for Mike back then). Favorite bands from then – the Eagles and Boston.

Kathy-Lynn Kieb Abrahamsen

212 Church Street, Lakehurst, NJ 08733, kathylynn88@hotmail.com

Kathy and Jim have been married since May of 1976 and have three adult children ages 29, 25 and 23. They have welcomed their first grandchild born 6/17/06. Kathy's career highlights include celebrating 25 years at her florist shop in Lakehurst back in October of 2005. Kathy enjoys motorcycle riding, but we're sure the grandchild has eclipsed all other hobbies. Their family is complete with Tess the dog, and Lily the cat. Kathy is a member of the Lakehurst Borough Historical Society. Her favorite memory from high school is the band trip to Disney World in March 1976. Her favorite song from high school is "Hail to the Varsity" (who can't picture Kathy in her Color Guard uniform in HS yearbook pics). Kathy claims her family has her greatest accomplishment.

Candace Post

516 Belleaire Rd, #102, Clearwater, FL 33756

Alive and well and living in Florida...

Anne Hanrahan McManus

616 Bradley Ave, Brielle, NJ 08730, c9ocean@hotmail.com

Anne has one 18 year old child attending Virginia Tech in the fall. Anne's career highlights include being an innkeeper, Windshop owner, and being a soccer trainer and coach. Her favorite pastimes include walks on the Spring Lake boardwalk, traveling and soccer (the English Premier League EPL). Their family includes Molly the dog. Her favorite memory from high school was getting back at Mr Kraybill for eating donuts in front of the class each morning. Her favorite accomplishment is putting together a business plan and meeting with Aston Villa football club and Liverpool football club in England

Jeff Blake

1508 Ivy Road, Point Pleasant, NJ 08742

Jeff has two children ages 16 and 14. He leaves the rest blank for us to fill in...

Ken Halle

136 Caravelle Drive, Jupiter, FL 33458, khalle@adelphia.net

Ken recently married in November 2005. His two children ages 13 and 10 live with their mother in Port St Lucie, FL. Ken works in the Date Security Department of ChoicePoint. He says he hasn't been to Point Pleasant for such a long time, he probably wouldn't recognize it.

David Clark

1518 Dock Place, Point Pleasant, dfclark5@aol.com

Dave and Nancy have two children, Michael age 17 and Lindsay age 15....oh those teenage years!

2409 Bridge Ave
Point Pleasant, NJ
(732) 892-2663

Open 7 Days
Voted #1 Year 2002

BARBARY COAST

HAIR and NAIL SALON

Wax Specials For Students

We Cater To Wedding Parties

Updo Specialist - Makeup

Color and Highlight Specialist

Call For Our Specials

Also...Facials By Christine

Bring This Ad For $7.00 OFF $12.00 Service

WICK-IT
GOOD
CANDLES
Scenter of the Universe

604 Ocean Road
(Room #1 East)
Point Pleasant

732-899-0999

www.WickItGoodCandles.com

If you love candles and are tired of the black smoky black walls and perfumed scents that make your search is finally over. Since 1994, Wick - it Good Candles has manufactured the highest quality, clean burning, and long burning, triple fragrance candle can buy. Under new ownership, with over seven fragrances, Wick - it Good has transformed its unique shopping experience as well, where you find unusual candle accessories and gifts. Come our "Jersey Shore" room where our fragrant candles named after Jersey Shore towns make the perfect

Welcome Home Class of 76'

Anonymous Donator

May We MEAT To Thank Him Soo

Mary Stewart Erm

RR 4 Box 4083, Saylorsburg, PA 18353, maryerm@ptd.net

Mary is married to Edward Erm and they have a daughter Christine, aged 21. Their son William passed at the age of 19, in 1998. Mary was promoted to head of youth services for the Eastern Monroe Public Library System, and is currently enrolled in graduate studies in Library Science. Her favorite pastimes include reading (no surprise), horseback riding, kayaking, camping, gardening and avoiding cooking. They have two cats, a dog, and three horses (they've pared down...). Mary is a member of Center Stage Players Community Theater, and is the head of Christian Education at Cherry Lane United Methodist Church. Her favorite high school teacher: Mr. Blake. Her favorite song from high school is Kodachrome by Paul Simon. Mary is proud to share that she finished her baccalaureate studies last year, and graduated summa cum laude. "Better late than never" she says. You're right, Mary!

Janice Beaton Zielinski

215 Cedar Breaks Road, Sugar Mountain Ranch, Rifle, CO 81650, jhzinriflco@aol.com

Janice was the first to respond to our invitation, and although unable to attend she tells us she enjoys fishing, arrowhead hunting, and gardening. She has three dogs and three cats, 20 chickens and two goldfish. She is a member of the Rifle, Co Elks and Moose lodges. Her favorite teacher in high school – Mr. Prall. Her favorite memory from high school, the backseat of someone's car at the Brick drive in. Okay, then.....Her favorite band was Kinderhook Creek, and her favorite song, Southern Man by Neil Young played during warm-ups at basketball games. Her accomplishments since high school are marrying a great man and building their own log cabin on 45 acres. She also tells us she's a complete blonde these days, and even cut her hair!

Paulette Foray

1128 Borden Avenue, Point Pleasant, NJ 08742, pforay@msn.com

Paulette is a paralegal in "the city", and apparently doesn't have time to fill in the blanks on her form. Guess we'll just have to ask her....

